TEAGUE CREHORE,

PETITION,

JANUARY 29, 1684.

[FROM SUFFOLK PROBATE REGISTRY.]

MILTON, 29: 11: m 1683

TO THE HONOURED COUNTE COURT THE HONOURED GOVERNOR AND MAGISTRATE SITING AT BOSTON.

The petition of TEAG CREHORE humbly sheweth That the last winter in the begining thereof Providencially there was an Indian which sometime lived at dorchester his name is Joseph: being at work making baskets and having a litle shelter not very far from my house, the said Indian was struke with a very great lamnes and was not able to help himselfe at all neither with fire nor food and he having noe Relation to punkepoge Indians nether they nor any other Indians tooke any notice of him theirefore I thought I was caled to take some care of him and not to let him perish in that helples condition that he at that time was in and I and my children caried in wood and food to him for his Releefe theire until we were worried out; it being som distance from my house theire being much snow and very cold theirefore we caried him home to my dweling house and theire kept him upon my own charge in both places twentie five weekes which was a great charge and a great deale of trouble to me and my family I am but a poore man and have a great Charge of Children and theirefore unable to beare such a burthen upon my owne account I made aplication to Mr Eliot and I thank him he alowed me twenty shilling but told me he could doe noe more. Theireof I your pore petitioner humbly Request this Honoured Court to consider of what is herein presented to your Honours Consideration and aford me som Releefe and in soe doing you will further oblige your petitioner as in dutie I am bound forever to pray
